SEEK JURY INDICTMENTS ON ABORTION

Elementary Trustees To Reconsider Double Sessions Citizen Committee

Consideration of a request for the Jefferson Elementary school board to authorize formation of a citizens' committee has been tabled until after December 7 when the board will ask Kenneth Dobelbauer, western representative of the National Citizens Commission for Public Schools, to address the trustee meeting.

Suggestion for a citizens' committee was made by the James L. Snell PTA committee for the elimination of double sessions but was "unofficially" turned down by a majority of the board at their last meeting.

When the request was reiterated at Wednesday night's meet, trustees agreed to consider the citizens' group.

Matter of the citizens' group arose during the reading of a statement by Larry Freiberg, 30 Village Lane, representative of the Snell organization.

"Run-Around" "Frankly, we feel that we are being given a polite form of a 'run around,' and the whole question of double sessions is similarly being circumvented," Freiberg charged.

At their last meeting the majority of trustees present agreed that it was best to let citizen groups work on their own without the official authorization of the board.

Commenting on this decision, Freiberg stated: "... Three or four independent committees or individuals, working at cross purposes, can result only in confusion, overlapping of functions, and utter lack of accomplishment."

Freiberg further charged that overcrowding and double sessions are handicapping the educational achievements of children in the district.

"Low Achievement" "In spite of the outstanding work done by our principals and teachers, the scholastic achievement average of pupils in this district was below the national average for the United States as a whole. Consider what this means when the national average includes the most backward rural areas as well as the southern states where per capita expenditures for education are far below ours. San Francisco school children score far above the national average in achievement tests," Freiberg declared.

Colma Man Dies After Pole Crash

Gus Garibaldi, 67-year-old bartender and long-time Colma resident, died Tuesday morning apparently as a result of an auto crash just south of Daly City Monday evening.

Garibaldi was driving south on Hillside boulevard at 9 p.m. Monday when his car sideswiped a parked vehicle and careened across Market street and into a power pole 100 feet south of the intersection.

Broadmoor police officer Merrill Baxley was first on the scene. He summoned the ambulance, which rushed Garibaldi to Junipero Serra hospital, where his injuries were diagnosed as cuts, bruises, fractured ribs and possible internal injuries.

At 7:30 a.m. the following morning he died. Coroner Paul B. Jensen has ordered an autopsy to determine cause of death.

Owner of the parked car, Colma Mayor Ray Obbotoni, 165 Third avenue, and his friend, Valentino Zamobini, 52 East Cavour, Daly City, were the only witnesses. They told Highway Patrolman Warren Warshaw that Garibaldi's southbound auto struck Obbotoni's car, continued through the intersection and then rammed into a utility pole. The headlights of the auto were not on, they said.

Garibaldi was found pinned under the dashboard in the totally demolished vehicle.

Garibaldi, owner of several parcels of property in the Colma area, had been living at the Cas 'N' Ray, 1094 Hillside boulevard, where he tended bar.

Only known survivor is a niece, Mrs. August Nickel, San Francisco.

Funeral services are being handled by W. C. Lasswell & Co.

CADDY PLEADS GUILTY TO PETTY THEFT CHARGE

A 41-year-old caddy, arrested Tuesday night at the Lake Merced Golf course by Police Officer John Coleman, pleaded guilty today to a charge of petty theft. Judge Thomas L. Boeci of municipal court yesterday sentenced Arthur R. McCauley, 1446 Sutter street, San Francisco, to five days in the county jail or a fine of $100.

McCauley, who was allegedly attempting to steal golf balls, jackets and gloves from the golf shop on the course, was spotted by Coleman while the officer was on patrol.

Coleman said that he saw McCauley passing the articles out of (Continued on Page 2)

POLICE CHIEF WARNS NEWSTAND THIEVES

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi issued a warning today to thieves who have been tampering with THE RECORD newsstands in recent months. He announced that the police department is making every endeavor to apprehend the culprits and added that he will ask that they be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Conviction of persons responsible holds a maximum penalty of six months in the county jail and/or a fine of $500.

File Annex Petition For DC Dump Site

Eighty-four acres of property southwest of Daly City, majority of which would be developed for a municipal fill and cover dump operation, was presented for annexation Monday night.

Petition for annexation was entered by Henry Doelger, who owns 10 acres of the coastal land and plans to subdivide it. Doelger's 10-acres is just south of his present development and is contiguous to the 74-acre coastal area which Daly City hopes to obtain for a municipal dump. The 74 acres, located on both sides of Coast highway, is owned by John MacReady. In his purchase agreement at the time he sold Doelger the 10 acres, MacReady agreed to allow annexation of the remainder of his property.

Daly City, through realtor Ricco Lagomarsino, is currently negotiating for purchase of the MacReady land.

Monday night the council referred the petition for annexation to the regular channels, i.e., the county boundary commission and (Continued on Page 2)

JESD Board Turns Down Proposal For Improvements

City Manager Howard Stites left the meeting of the Jefferson Elementary school district board Wednesday night minus a definite answer to his proposal for the city to construct a storm drain on Market street past Colma school.

Stites' suggestion was that cost of installing the storm drain be divided three ways between the city, elementary school district and an adjacent property owner. Total cost was estimated at $15,000.

The storm drain work would apparently include widening of Market street, which the city manager stated is "very dangerous" (Continued on Page 2)

ALLDO JURY TRIAL SET DECEMBER 29

Jury trial for a 75-year-old local man accused by a Daly City mother of annoying her six-year-old child has been scheduled for December 29. Charge against Gustaf Allido, 75, 498 Parkview avenue, was reduced yesterday in municipal court from a felony to misdemeanor.

Representing Allido is Attorney John J. Fahey, Jr.

In other municipal court action yesterday Judge Thomas L. Boeci: 1. Levied a $250 fine on Henry Ziegle, 196 Irvington street, charged with driving with a revoked license on October 22.

2. Accepted forfeiture of a $25 fine from Dennis McGuire, charged with being drunk in a public place on November 7.

Second call for bids on construction of Westmoor High school is being made today following decision Wednesday night by the Jefferson Union high school board to readvertise for bids.

Superintendent Stanford Hannah declared that proposals would be opened by trustees on December 5.

Six offers for building the high school were opened Monday night by the board but were rejected on the advice of District Attorney Keith Sorenson because low bid of $2,346,941 by Theo. G. Meyer & Sons was submitted after the 8 p.m. deadline.

The Meyer proposal fell more than $100,000 lower than the next lowest bid submitted, $2,443,852 by Barrett Construction. The difference between the two bids is significant in that $100,000 would cover cost of constructing a new administration building on the Jefferson-Union high school site.

Mix-up Monday night on the Meyer bid occurred when a representative of the company went to the elementary school district administration building instead of to the high school. Hannah was opening the second of the six-bid total when the board was informed by phone of the mistake.

The Meyer proposal arrived a few minutes later and was opened by the board. Trustees tabled decision on the matter, however, until the special meeting Wednesday night.

Other offers for Westmoor construction submitted Monday night were: Rothschild, Raffin & Weirick, $2,462,000; Karl N. Swenson, $2,462,000; M & K Corporation, $2,493,000; and E. H. Moore (Continued on Page 2)

Compromise price of $33.50 for the much disputed hallway at new Jefferson Elementary school district offices in the Westlake Medical-Dental building was agreed on Wednesday night by school trustees and Jack Kendree, Doelger representative.

The district is now paying 8 cents per foot for the corridor while other tenants pay 35 cents a foot. A charge of 16 cents per foot is charged for other office space used by the district.

Total rent now levied is $482.98.

JAMES MASON ... He Fired

SAM VALENTINO ... He Appealed

OUSTED EMPLOYEE REQUESTS HEARING

Sam Valentino, 49-year-old custodian discharged from his job two weeks ago by Recreation Director James Mason, has requested a civil service board of review hearing on his case.

The board is scheduled to set date for hearing at its meeting today.

Valentino, who lives at 327 Westlake avenue and has worked for the city for two years, claims his dismissal was not justified.

According to Mason, Valentino was fired because of "insubordination and his disturbing influence on other employees."

Valentino's dismissal was said to have arisen over the custodian's alleged refusal to help another employee remove garbage cans from the community center to a spot outside the building where they could be picked up. The custodian also refused to help empty the cans into the truck, Mason said.

Valentino at first filed a lengthy list of counter-charges against the recreation director, but later withdrew them, stating in this newspaper, "I think the whole thing is going to be cleared up."

The employee conferred with City Manager Howard Stites Tuesday morning, and after the session Stites announced the incident was apparently a matter of "incompatibility" between Valentino and Mason.

"We're trying to put Valentino in a city position outside the recreation department," Stites revealed. He said, "If the civil service board finds the firing unwarranted, it would be a disgrace."

PENINSULA LINE OPENS CEMETERIES BUS RUN MONDAY

Peninsula Bus Line of South San Francisco will take over the No. 56 Municipal bus route Monday morning.

The line will travel the same route traversed by the No. 56, from San Francisco county line to the Cemeteries via Mission street.

The bus will operate from 5:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. weekdays and fare will be 15 cents between San Francisco county line and the cemeteries. A 25-cent fare will be charged for through service to or from South San Francisco.

The No. 56 will be abandoned Monday, as directed by San Francisco public utilities commission recently.

Broadmoor Home Raided As Illegal Surgery Mill

District Attorney Keith Sorenson will appear before the county grand jury Monday night to ask indictment of a mother and her daughter on charges of operating an abortion mill at a Broadmoor home.

The two women, Mrs. Alto Anderson, 57, and her daughter, Mrs. Mae Rodley, 38, appeared yesterday in municipal court and motion to continue arraignment to November 29 was granted by Judge Thomas L. Boeci.

Court Review Sought On Incorporation

A writ was expected to be filed this week in superior court to review the recent board of supervisors action in reducing the boundaries of the proposed city of Northgate.

Attorney Antonio Gaudio will file the writ for the incorporation proponents. He claims in the action that the board decision was invalid because one of the supervisors, Thomas J. Callan Sr. of Colma, has a son who owns a sizeable share of the property excluded from the incorporation boundaries.

According to Gaudio, Thomas J. Callan Jr. and his wife own 39/720 of the Zanon Tract land, which was excluded from the proposed city after protest of Chris McKeon, who represents the Zita Corp., which owns 603/720 of the land. Callan Sr. voted for the exclusion.

Callan's vote was "against public policy forbidding an official to take active part in a matter which may be of substantial interest to his son," said Gaudio.

The entire Zanon piece is estimated to be worth $2,000,000, which would mean that Callan Jr. and his wife have approximately $100,000 interest in the property.

If the court agrees with Gaudio's argument, it would have the effect of throwing out the board decision which practically cut the Northgate boundaries in half.

The two women were stolid during the five minutes of court proceedings, saying nothing and showing no visible emotions. The mother and daughter did not speak to one another.

If the grand jury returns an indictment Monday, the case will be out of the municipal court jurisdiction and the pair will be bound over to superior court for arraignment.

Mrs. Anderson was represented by Richard P. Lyons, while the court appointed San Bruno attorney Paul De Mare to defend her daughter.

Ten law enforcement officers participated in a raid Tuesday night at 590 Washington street that resulted in the apprehension of Mrs. Anderson. The following morning they arrested her daughter at her Colma home, 453 B street.

District Attorney Keith Sorenson, who participated in the raid along with Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage and San Francisco District Attorney Thomas Lynch, said it was "one of the most important abortion operations in the state."

The arrests culminated "several months" of intensive investigation, Sorenson said.

Coincidentally, the operation of an abortion mill in northern San Mateo county had been charged by Daly City attorney John J. Fahey at the hearing for fired police inspector Dave Johnstone, June 17.

However, it was strictly a coincidence, said Sorenson.

Fahey, in trying to prove that his client was being dismissed on strictly hearsay evidence, posed the hypothetical question to Sorenson that, "I have been informed there has been an abortion mill operating for two years and you (Continued on Page 2)

Urge More Policing To Curb Teen-Age Rowdiness

More policing of community center teen-age dances was approved Wednesday night by the recreation commission as a means to prevent recurrences of juvenile rowdiness such as occurred October 21.

On October 21, 15 teen-age hoodlums crashed the dance, one of them wielding a knife, scattered melons over the building floor and forcibly took a young girl from the dance. At the time, there was no police surveillance of the dance.

Wednesday's session was a joint meeting between the commission, City Manager Howard Stites and Police Chief Roland Petrocchi.

Petrocchi said he "frowned on police for juvenile functions," but agreed with the proposal that patrol cars cover the building at intervals during the dance.

"Lesser Of Evils"

Mrs. Gordon Carlson agreed that while having police at or around a teen-age function was undesirable, "The October 21 incident was a much more unhappy one than having police around. It's the lesser of two evils."

The commission also approved plans for the 68-car parking lot at the Westlake clubhouse, which is nearing completion.

In approving the lot, the commission also authorized expenditures of approximately $5500 for completing the parking lot and walkways and $1500 for more plants.

It was agreed to transfer a portion of the $11,000 allocated for improvements on the older Daly City park to finance the Westlake. (Continued on Page 2) privy, but it's all up to the dogs now.

More blotter stuff: All officers have been asked to pick up only the toughest juvenile cases for booking at Hillcrest, since the hall is handling three times capacity. The condition will exist until at least Monday.

Mother-in-law of a local resident has been voting diligently in San Francisco every year for the past 30 years.

But she just found out last week that she has exercised her franchise to no avail.

All these years she has pushed the handle on the voting machine down, then moved it back up to its original position, nullifying her vote.

What amazes this department, is that the woman had the courage to reveal her transgression. She may not have officially voted, but the country could use a few more citizens of her zeal and forthrightness.

Nine hundred ravenous kids were served turkey dinner at Colma school cafeteria Tuesday, and we imagine there was thanksgiving on the part of the kitchen help when it was all over.

 ruling could probably be reaffirmed without Callan, since the vote was by a 4-1 margin. However, Gaudio asserts that, "If one member of the board is disqualified from voting by the court this would affect the other members. They could not, because of his interest in the matter, take similar action. This would be giving lip service to public policy."

"Let People Decide"
 Gaudio says if the court tosses out the board ruling he will ask that the supervisors "let the people decide the issue under the original boundaries proposed." Under the original limits of the proposed city, Sterling Park, unincorporated Colma, Zanone lands, Broadmoor and Garden Village were included. The supervisors' revised boundaries left only the last two areas mentioned to decide on the incorporation issue. The larger boundaries originally received approval of the county boundaries commission.

McKeon actively protested inclusion of the Zanone lands in the city of Northgate and mainly on the basis of his protest, and other owners of smaller parcels, the supervisors excluded the land from the incorporation area.

Gaudio claims that prior to November 1, when the incorporation group was mapping its boundaries, the fact that Zita Corp. owned most of the Zanone lands was not on record.

The attorney said he hoped to file the writ today and since such action was an "extraordinary remedy," expected that the court would render decision before the end of the week.

Officers said that McCauley had apparently been locked in the shop when it was closed at 6:30 p.m. The caddy was apprehended less than an hour later.

Damage to the building where McCauley had broken a panel in the door and two panes of glass was estimated at $30.

group was the Henry Doelger corporation. Freiberg stated that the PTA had passed a resolution stating "that a letter be written to the Board of Trustees of the Elementary and High School Districts, to the League for Better Schools, asking that they take issue with false advertising relative to the adequacy of our schools and that the Unit stand behind them."

Freiberg specifically referred to a recent Westlake advertising section in a metropolitan newspaper. Suggest Signs
 Another statement by the Snell representative that the Broadmoor Property Owners association had passed a resolution to sponsor "schools filled" signs on the highway was denied today by Jack Baker, association president. Baker declared that although there was "some discussion" on the matter, the association has taken no action.

Following Freiberg's statements, Trustee Hartley Appleton reaffirmed his position in favoring a citizens' committee and asked that the board reconsider.

Trustee Henry Kraus objected, saying, "I object to the formation of a citizens' committee just for the purpose of providing for unhappy people to let them run out of gas."

Asks Objectivity
 Kraus ended his statement with a plea that the matter of double sessions be considered in an "objective" and "not emotional" manner.

Board Chairman Michael Callan observed, "If you say Palo Alto district children maintain a higher average, how does the fact that they are on triple sessions hold up your argument?"

Next to speak was Mrs. Wesley F. Foster, also from the Snell committee. She referred to a letter she had written asking numerous acts about the district and declared, "If the board was confused, think how much more confused were the parents." Mrs. Foster also added her voice to the plea for a citizens' group.

"The first step in the formation of such a group is whether or not you are objective," Kraus maintained.

Affirmative Answer
 Mrs. Foster replied that she thought she could be so. At the request of Mrs. Edward A. Macklin, the remainder of the board members stated their position. Joe Lewkowitz declared, "I am interested in PTA units attending our meetings," and Mrs. Katherine Mullen said, "I am in favor of the formation of citizens' committees."

The December 7 meeting will also host Dr. B. C. Curry of the county department of education and Don Smith of the state department of finance.

JESD Board Turns Down Proposal For Improvements

"I'm surprised we haven't had a serious auto-bicycle accident there," he told the board.

Stites' proposal was immediately objected to by Trustee Hartley Appleton, who insisted that residents of the area should pay for the improvements.

The city manager explained that usual practice is to assess adjacent property.

"But we're an impoverished district," Appleton pleaded.

"Well, so is the city," Stites retorted.

Stites' suggestion that the city outlaw parking on one side of the congested street seemed to meet the approval of the board. He also stated that he planned to request the city council to set a special rate on water bills for governmental agencies, which might save the school district $5000 within two years.

'CASH ONLY' THIEVES STRIKE HERE AGAIN

Thieves took only $15 in small change after completely ransacking a Daly City residence Tuesday night. The burglary is similar to a string of five break-ins here on October 28.

As in the other five break-ins, the culprits entered the house Tuesday night through an open window. Valuable articles such as jewelry and silver were left untouched although all drawers and closets were ransacked.

Victim of the burglary was Meade Murphy, 41, a chauffeur of 171 Roosevelt avenue.

have been receiving pay-offs."

The fired district attorney called Fahey before the grand jury to reveal any information he might have about such a ring. Fahey told the jury he was merely posing a hypothetical question to emphasize his argument for the fired police officer.

Couldn't Reveal It

"I couldn't say on the stand at that time that our investigation was underway or it would have directed attention to the suspects. We have complete records, however, showing that the operation was under surveillance and being investigated on and before Fahey's statement," the district attorney disclosed.

He revealed that the suspects were apparently "shaken" by Fahey's alarming statements which were widely publicized. "I have reason to believe that when Fahey made the statement she (Mrs. Anderson) was incensed because she feared it might draw attention to her," Sorenson said.

Mrs. Anderson, a former associate of the notorious Gertrude Jenkins, was charged with performing an abortion, while her daughter was named as an accomplice.

Mrs. Anderson, assisted by her daughter, had been performing three or four abortions per month, claimed Sorenson. They received $500 from each patient and "were confident she had other connections throughout the state," the DA revealed.

The Break Came

Break in the case came October 25 when a young San Francisco housewife underwent surgery at the Anderson home and suffered complications, Sorenson said.

She complained to her physician and he called San Francisco police, who received a complete statement from her Tuesday.

Confiscated in the raid were surgical equipment, needles, disinfectant and a loaded "double-barreled" shot-gun pistol, which Mrs. Anderson said "was there when I bought the house."

Operations were performed on a kitchen table at the modest six-room home, Sorenson said.

Served Time Before
 Mrs. Anderson was released from Tehachapi women's prison four years ago, where she served two years after a raid on a Garden Village abortion mill.

She had been, up to this year, living in San Francisco. "When she moved to San Mateo county she immediately became suspect," Sorenson added.

Sorenson said because of the abortifacient who had agreed to testify against the woman, "we've got an open and shut case." He said his investigators were querying other women known to have had abortions who also may agree to testify.

Prison term prescribed for an abortion conviction is from two to five years on each count. Should further women testify as to abortions Sorenson said he would ask convictions on each count.

Mrs. Anderson was freed Wednesday on $20,000 bond posted by bondsman Wilbur Sunderland, former Daly City police chief.

Mrs. Rodley has been released on her own recognizance.

Approximately $4240 can also be taken from the $6900 new equipment fund, said Recreation Director James Mason, since purchase of most of the new equipment is not urgent.

$3500 For Frankfort

Mrs. Carlson asked how the budget for work on old parks could stand a cut of $4000, but Stites explained that $7192 of the $11,000 was budgeted for Frankfort improvements, while $3500 would probably do the job.

In other action, the commission authorized Mason to make a survey of city-school recreation facilities and determine how much financial assistance the city would ask from the schools, as well as how much in services the city would offer the schools.

It was reported that Thomas Laramie has resigned the commission, making two vacancies on that group, since Victor Baher recently tendered his resignation.

Stites said the council was considering appointment of two replacements and would discuss this at their Monday meeting.

Another meeting of the recreation commission will be held next Tuesday to further discuss Westlake park.

He said the present jitney operation was causing inconvenience to many persons who were unable to determine exactly what time the jitneys would pass the designated stops.

Court Hearing For Used Car Salesman Set For December 13

Jack Louis Trebony, former used car salesman at Vic's Auto Sales on Junipero Serra boulevard, is scheduled to appear in municipal court December 13 for preliminary hearing on a charge of grand theft. Trebony, 26, 1250 Vallejo street, San Francisco, has so far been unable to post bail of $1000 cash or $2000 bond and is being held in county jail.

Complainant against the salesman is Victor Brincat, owner of the used car lot. Brincat claims that Trebony absconded with $357.82 in company funds while the owner was on a week's vacation from September 20 to 27.

Trebony was arrested in Los Angeles by the Federal Bureau of Investigation who wanted him for violation of the selective service act.

Study Three Bids For Tractor-Loader

Three bids for supplying the city with a tractor and end loader for street work were referred to the city manager by the council Monday night.

The bidders all submitted alternate figures for supplying a back hoe with the equipment. Bidders, their initial proposals and alternates were: Contractors Machinery Co., $4248.75, $6768.13; Bay Cities Equipment Co., $5711.35, $9193.78; Oliver Corp., $3469.95, $5677.49.

Manager Howard Stites said there was $9000 in the budget for purchase of the equipment.

Stites said the alternative piece of equipment, the back hoe, would probably prove valuable in the future for trenching on water department projects.

The lone bid received last week from Consolidated Western Steel for supplying 500 lineal feet of corrugated metal pipe was rejected, after Stites said the $5733.35 figure was too high and the proposal "did not conform to specifications in some respects."

His recommendation that the council grant authority to purchase the pipe on the open market was accepted. Stites said he would seek to get re-inforced concrete pipe, which he could probably obtain at a price less than the bid. When the council first called for bids on the material, they asked for the re-inforced concrete, but received no proposals.

In other action Monday, the council gave Stites the go-ahead to proceed with preparation of a new ordinance on electrical installations, and approved payment of $1275 to North San Mateo County Sanitation district for the city's portion of cost of constructing road to sewage plant and Westlake park.

It takes experience and skill to drive in heavy traffic at highway speeds. One thing the experienced driver knows is that the other fellow can't stop on a dime, says the California State Automobile Association. COUNCIL COMMENDS FORMER LIBRARIAN

Resolution to commend Lorraine Rollandi, who recently left her position as head Daly City librarian, was passed by the city council Monday night.

Mrs. Rollandi was with the local library for seven years, two of which she served as head librarian.

The most effective way to remove ice cream spots from your car's upholstery is to sponge lightly with lukewarm soap suds, says the California State Automobile Association. Rinse with cold water and if an oily spot remains, rub lightly with a dry cleaning fluid.

She was replaced November 1 by Miss Patricia Clark.

WINNING THE CONTEST WITH DEATH

On December 1 Daly City and communities throughout the nation will observe S-D day—a special safe-driving day when every community in the United States will attempt to compile 24 fatality-free hours on the highways.

The S-D day aim, of course, is one which should be striven for on the other 364 days of the year, but holding the special 24-hour observance is one good way to focus public attention on how effective concerted traffic safety programs can be.

Daly City is fortunate in that it has not had a single traffic fatality in three years, but that's all the more reason this community's drivers should diligently attempt to perpetuate this fine record.

The local traffic inspector maintains that the most safe driver is a defensive driver, meaning that he "acts as though he is always under attack. His enemies are careless motorists, careless pedestrians and unsafe traffic conditions. The defensive driver makes allowances for these highway culprits. He avoids accidents by anticipating and allowing for the hazards created by the unsafe acts of others and by adverse traffic and weather conditions."

Drivers have been asked to check themselves with the following list to determine if their motoring is defensive:

Do you drive so that you are never surprised by the actions of the other motorist or pedestrians?

At intersections do you make sure no one is approaching from your right or left even though you may have the right of way?

Do you constantly check your rear view mirror to see what's happening behind you?

Do you watch out for pedestrians even though they may be crossing against the light?

Do you keep a sharp eye for oncoming cars that might suddenly turn in front of you?

On slippery pavement do you check your braking to see how much traction you have in case you must make an emergency stop?

If you do all these things and if you drive for the other fellow as well as yourself, you're a defensive driver.

Although they say the best defense is a good offense, it doesn't apply on the road.

If every Daly City driver could stay on the defensive team S-D day and every day, as they apparently have done admirably for the past three years, this city can win the contest against death on the highway.

NO. 76 MUNI BUS LEAVES DALY CITY FOR LAST TIME

The No. 76 Muni bus made its last trip in the city of Daly City Friday, but its departure evoked only scattered comment.

The San Francisco bus which had been traversing the area from Westlake to West Portal since last March under subsidy of Henry Doelger, left the Westlake terminal at 6:30 p.m. for its final run into San Francisco. Before Doelger's subsidy, the line had been operating three years, serving Broadmoor and Westlake area.

Doelger's contract to subsidize all losses of the bus through December 31 was abrogated Friday by mutual agreement of San Francisco public utilities commission and Doelger.

At the Doelger office, Jack Kennedy, managing director of the shopping center, said only three persons called in protest of the bus' abandonment.

Kendree said these three persons had expressed a need for transportation to West Portal. This paper also received three pleaded not guilty to the count Tuesday in municipal court.

One woman, Mrs. Sheldon Crawford, 21 Westridge, criticized the Doelger firm for "not standing back of its advertising." Said Mrs. Crawford, "We bought our home here on the strength of the claim that Doelger would keep the line running until December 31. A salesman told us that we would have adequate transportation to San Francisco."

Three-way protection is the mark of a good driver. He protects the occupants of his own car, those riding in other cars and also pedestrians. He does this, says the California State Automobile Association, by anticipating traffic and by being on the alert for the unexpected.

Youth Tries New Twist On Car Theft; Steals Keys First

A 17-year-old Daly City youth wound up in custody of juvenile authorities Friday after his novel car theft plan was nipped in the bud by Broadmoor police.

At 5 p.m. Friday the Car Plantation, 7733 Mission street, reported that a set of keys to a 1950 vehicle had been stolen. Police took a routine petty theft report on the incident.

Later that evening while on patrol Officer Merrill Baxley and reservist Charles Hazen spotted a youth in the car lot. Seeing the police car, the youth took flight and hid behind a row of autos at the lot.

Officers picked up the juvenile and brought him to the station, where he emptied his pockets and tossed out the keys reported stolen that afternoon.

The youth admitted stealing the keys, explaining that he had planned to come back and pick up the vehicle that evening.

He was charged with petty theft and attempted auto theft and placed in hands of authorities at Hillcrest juvenile home.

GEERTSEN CAPTURES NORTH CAL. TOURNEY

John Geertsen of Broadmoor, pro at San Francisco club, toured the Pasatiempo 18 in 69 Monday to capture low pro honors at the Northern California Golf League tournament.

Tying Geertsen for low net honors was amateur Ken Venturi of Parkmerced. Venturi Bogeyed the last hole.

Sharp Park's Lido Landi, who will enter the circuit next season, made his professional debut with a 73, which was good for second low pro honors.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Have you ever thought about the wealth of talent that can be found in San Francisco's small opera societies and little theatre groups?

What started us off on this track was dropping in to 123 So. Van Ness, where the Opera Ring is presenting Kurt Weill's "Threepenny Opera." It is a bawdy tale which has come down to us from John Gay's "Beggars Opera" by way of the German theatre of the late twenties, when Kurt Weill and Bert Brecht reworked the two centuries' old story of a group of organized beggars, their doxies, a corrupt police commissioner and Macheath the thief.

"Threepenny" is performed in-the-round, and this adds considerably to its appeal. In the street scenes particularly, when the fat-tailed residents of London's half-world drift out from the shadows, this staging permits the audience to feel the sense of participation much more keenly than in the more conventional productions.

Sixteen Characters

Weill's work is not an opera as the word is customarily understood. There are long stretches of dialogue that call for singers who can act and actors who can sing. In the main, the cast of sixteen characters meets these demands adequately, except for a tendency to deliver many of the lines much too fast.

"Threepenny" is a very entertaining theatre indeed, and this production is an example of what courage, wit and imagination can do with relatively limited resources. Final performances this weekend. It has taken some 27 years for "Threepenny" to reach San Francisco. Thanks to Miss Irma Kay, director of the Ring, it has finally made it. It would be a pity indeed if you miss it.

Readers who find a play more to their taste need go no further than Theatre Arts at 1725 Washington street, where the San Francisco Civic theatre is presenting Tennessee Williams' "Rose Tattoo." This tale of a Sicilian widow in a poor Gulf Coast town, who rejects the world upon the death of her husband, has broad, comic touches and engenders considerably more laughter than some Williams' plays.

Superb Serafina

Leading players are Barbara Franger as Serafina, content to live upon her memories of her dead husband's prowess, and Edward Abajian as Alvaro, the emotional truckdriver aiming to replace the dead man. Miss Franger is a superb Serafina; moody, earthy and exasperating in her extreme emotional reaction to every situation. Abajian's Alvaro is ludicrous and pitiable at the same time. His courtship of the reluctant widow is masterly, leaving the audience with the feeling of having been an unwilling witness to an embarrassingly personal situation.

To be sure, there are weaknesses. Warren Finerty is an inept Father De Leo, and it is to be regretted that Jeanne Cameron's Miss York is merely a trite caricature of a teacher. Terry Ashe is a satisfactory, though a trifle soporific, Rosa. Serafina's fifteen-year-old daughter who is pining to find out about the birds and the bees at first hand.

However, despite these weaknesses "Tattoo" is extremely well done, and Abbott and Abrams are to be congratulated upon having another hit.

Recommend Permanent Status For Employee

Recommendation to declare status of Cecile Blume, accountant clerk, as permanent employee was turned over to Manager Howard Stites by the city council Monday night.

In a letter to the council, City Clerk B. C. Ross said the woman had successfully completed her one-year probationary period with the city.

LEASH ORDINANCE IS NOW IN EFFECT

Daly City's animal leash ordinance went into effect yesterday (Thursday) and all pet owners are reminded that animals must be on leash under the new statute.

The ordinance also requires licenses for all dogs over three months old and makes it unlawful to permit any animal to trespass on private property so as to damage or destroy any property.

Poundmaster Charles Maschinot may be contacted for further information at PL. 5-4212.

NEW AND USED CARS

Twice as many new cars were sold last year in the United States as used cars, according to the California State Automobile Association.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

Several of our local little ballerinas performed in a dance recital at Ft. Baker and were guests of the soldiers there at a Halloween party which included everything from games to cider and doughnuts. Sharing the spotlight were Lynn Auer, Linda Hurst, Paula and Judy Hirschberg, Gerrie Giese and Judy MacDonald, Diana Karkins and Mabel Lynn and Ruth Ann Hulce.

Michael Cheda was the entertainer par excellence at Steven and Barry Bullis party—he can do "wiggly line" drawings as well as Captain Fortune, and kept the whole Bradley street crew happy for quite a while producing requested subjects with his pencil. The party, complete with costumes, was one promised to Steven a year ago, and delayed because of a lengthy hospital visit. Paul Chernok, Michael and Nina Cheda, Kathy, Judy and Kenny MacDonald, Jay and Ley Elliot, Jerilyn and Miquette Magnusson, Marilyn Derham, Jackie and Cecilia Murish were the guests.

The teenagers were busy that last weekend in October too. The Westminster group from the Presbyterian church went on a beach party—43 of 'em, no less! They went down to Shelter Cove at Pedro Point, and roasted hot dogs and ate and talked and ate and had a terrific time. Of course, the fact that a lot of them had colds later only meant the party was a great success, including the performance of Bob Roller, who managed to become very good friends with the Pacific by falling in!

Explorer's Party

John Gustafson told us about the Explorer Scouts' party that same weekend, with Terry and Claude Anger, Danny Anderson, Larry Bennett, Carol Bordegaray, Michela Watts, Nancy Ann Young, Marilyn Garris, Barbara Newcomb and Scott Parker all present and accounted for, and dancing, games and imitations the order of the evening.

Witches and ghosts weren't the only things hovering over the Villages this past couple of weeks. The long-beaked bird with the black-tipped wings made so many trips he met himself coming and going! His trip ticket, which he dropped at our house en route, read as follows:

"One pretty little girl, Lisa Annette, for the Bill Cullen family on Larchmont. 7 lbs. 10 oz. of happy baby sister for brother Danny and sister Laurie. . . . Herbert Edward Miller III, special delivery for the Herbert Miller, Jr.'s on 87th Street. Weight—7 lbs. 12 oz. Be sure to leave just four days after sister Cheryl Ann's second birthday. . . . Betty and Ed Morris' request for a son answered. 6 lbs. 11 oz. Marshall taken to Beechwood drive air freight, same as with first son Pat and daughter Marie. . . . Change of address noted: Ethel and Gunnar Gunheim now living at 6 Randall court. Be sure Renee gets to right home! Weight checked at 9 lbs. 8 oz. Young brother Gregory will be happy. . . . Fifth trip to Otis Crapse family on Nimitz. David Charles, 7 lbs. 14 oz., special gift for brother Raymond. Sisters Arline, Virginia and Phyllis still majority party! . . . Take long way around going home: leave Judith Alice off at New Haven, Connecticut. Joan and James Glasse anxiously waiting for this 7 lbs. 5 oz. young lady. Grandparents Rev. and Mrs. John A. Glasse will be pleased to hear about this. Signed, Sir Stork."

Looks like Sir Stork will be back again—Kay Mattson and Helen Saper gave a baby shower over on Midway for Virginia Abbott not so long ago. Alice Travinsky, Betty Schmidt, Marge Manning, Janet Gliel, Helene Gurewitz, Eileen Crofton, Anne Elzman, Florence Reeves, Marion Fish, Ilene Locke and Bubbles Fitzpatrick kept Virginia pretty busy opening their gifts.

The Ken Gillespies over Gilman way have been having a busy time of it. First, they gave a party for 23 people at the Broadmoor community center—a sort of reunion of those who once belonged to the San Francisco evening-meeting 20-30 club. One couple came from Santa Rosa and another all the way from Fresno. . . . And the following weekend they traveled by AT&SF Railroad to Hanford (near Fresno), where Ken emceed a district 20-30 club meeting. There was enough time after the meeting for Ken to learn quite a bit about cows! Ask him sometime!

Word has it that John and Yvonne Kelly and family, who once lived on Larchmont and moved to Los Angeles, will be moving again. John has just been made head of all Philco Company advertising throughout the US, and will locate in Philadelphia.

And talking of moving—! Addie Mattison has been gracing the offices of Dr. Young over in Westlake this past week, because regular office nurse Grace Rose needed time to help husband Elman pack and move to Crestmoor. Ray and Beverly Falvey are leaving Maddux for Sunnyvale, and the John Mendez family is leaving the same street for Burlingame. The Albert Ekdalls will trade Louvaine for Santa Clara after Christmas, taking very new son Craig Steven with them. His extra 6 lbs., 12 oz., made things kind of crowded, particularly with Dan Edward, Sharon, Skipper and Richard all there, too!

Modesto For Beechwood

And that isn't all—the William Feagates are trading Beechwood for Modesto, and two more Maddux families are departing. (What is the matter with poor old Maddux, anyhow?) Bernis and Ted Schuler will be Millbrae Meadows, and, come spring, the Bud Hinks will be over in Marinwood.

Saw one-time Garden Villager Vicki Falconer down in San Bruno couple of weeks back. She looked fine, but the leg she hurt so severely still troubles her a little when she walks. It hasn't kept her from keeping on with PTA work, though, and she is currently magazine chairman for the high school unit in Campbell. She said to say hello to all her friends here. . . .

Paul Elliott spent a business-trip week in Washington, D. C., and came back in time to be host at a dinner party he and Doris gave at their Gilman street home. The guests were Harry Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Blomquist, and John Sanders, chief chemist for the Food and Drug Administration. The first three work with Paul in the San Francisco laboratories of the F&D Adm.

Sightings: The rapid pace of the construction of the extra-rooms-and-garage at the Taylors' house on the Nimitz-Midway corner. . . . The whole Larsen family busily moving topsail from where is was dumped on their Garden Lane driveway to the flower beds where they wanted it. . . . The way children seem to spring up out of nowhere when the Bookmobile stops on Washington at 4 p.m. Thursdays; the van is crowded in five minutes flat! . . . The identical pairs of glasses on a certain R. Hirschberg and G. Mitchell!

We were nearly blinded by the flash and dash of red and black which went by our house the other day. Turned out to be Gene Bried in his new Chrysler Imperial—or rather, his company's new Chrysler Imperial! Gene has been doing quite a bit of traveling in connection with his rug business lately, and is now vice president of what promises to be a statewide Rug Cleaners Institute. He and Maybelle plan to be in their new San Mateo home very soon, if all goes according to schedule.

Birthday News

87th street had the birthday news this week. Dorothy Swoverland celebrated hers with the most unique present anybody ever had—daughter Nancy came down with the chicken pox! Next door neighbor Patti Alba turned six and had a party, which Nancy did get to before the CP incident, and Pam Egleston, Joy Lynn and Donna McDougall, Debbie Wooten, Leona Alba, Mary Ann and Celia Andro, and sister Shelley Alba also shared in the fun.

We were glad to hear that Dot Manis feels better after the operation on her back, and hope that that, plus the treatment at Kaiser hospital, will have her completely well again. Young Jimmy Helmer had an operation too—lost his tonsils! He took it right in stride. Too bad that so many families have had sickness problems lately. Estelle Pickens, Maude Back, Ralphy Hirschberg, George Warner and Frank Corso have been feeling badly, but should be all right now—at least we hope so. The young Warner boys, the Hirschberg girls, the Beck youngsters, Lynn Auer, Marc and Anita Duste, and the Corso boys have all missed school for a few days, as have quite a few more of the Villages' school set. Anyhow, everybody should be all over things like this by holiday time at least.

Everybody was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Ed Hyndman. Ellis street won't seem the same without him somehow, and we'd like to join with others who have offered Betty and the family friendship and sympathy, especially now when it means so much.

SAFETY NEWS

President Eisenhower, in proclaiming the nationwide observance of Safe Driving Day on December 1, has emphasized two aspects of the drive against traffic accidents in this country.

First, that such an urgent plea should be made by the leader of our country to walk and to drive safely reveals not only the national concern over traffic problems but also the belief that the solution lies in a strong appeal to mass sentiment and action.

Second, such a presidential appeal voices the conviction that traffic accidents CAN be prevented by organized mass attack.

Just how serious is the traffic problem in this country at this time? Last year, the National Safety Council estimates 36,000 people were killed and 1,250,000 injured in traffic accidents. The total cost of these accidents, (including property damage, medical expense, wage loss, insurance, costs, etc.) amounted to $4,400,000,000.

The Causes

The causes of traffic accidents, while usually recognized as a complexity of factors each aiding and abetting the other, are drunk driving, speed, traffic violations, in general, those driving mannerisms grouped under the general heading of "reckless or careless driving."

While the fever of the traffic death rate has shown sporadic surges upward—as in the prewar jitters and the postwar jubilation of World War II—it has shown a downward trend during the past ten years. The death rate last year, despite increases in population, travel, and motorists was the lowest on record: 6.4 persons for every 100 million miles of travel.

The drive against traffic accidents in this country is not a new battle, but over the years it has grown to such a size that it has now become a national issue. In this campaign for traffic safety the necessity and effectiveness of intensive public education in safety is no longer a debatable point, rather we should like to think that the attrition of the traffic death rate over the years is due in some measure to the slow but certain effect of a public education program which, through its many spirited leaders, has valiantly and persistently attacked the problem of traffic safety.

Can It Produce?

Can a 24-hour mass attack on the traffic problem such as S-D Day produce any tangible results? On S-D Day last year a comparison was made between the number of accidents which occurred on that day with those on the same day of the previous year. It was found that there was a reduction of 15 per cent in traffic deaths, according to the President's Committee for Traffic Safety.

If one day of safe driving and walking can produce such gratifying results, there is no doubt that a continuous day by day program would in time make an appreciable reduction in the annual traffic toll in this country. Furthermore, it would indicate that however you try to engineer, enforce, or argue safety—and all these approaches are necessary in the solution of the traffic problem—down at the bottom, at the grass roots of any mass movement, is the will and sense of personal responsibility of the individual.

The problem of human safety in our travel of arteries and on our highways will be solved when each and everyone of us exercises this will toward safety—when we make every day Safe Driving Day.

The average age of a car when it is traded in on a new automobile is 3.2 years, says the California State Automobile Association.

Two Falls Plenty

Kenny Magoon has been having a quiet time of it lately. A fall on the blacktop in a playground resulted in a concussion, a cracked tooth and a king-sized shiner, so he had to spend a day or so at the emergency hospital and then came back home to 87th street for more time in bed. Seems this is his second concussion; he got the first one falling out of a tree. Take it easy, Ken—two's plenty.

Local small fry swarmed down to KOED the other day and besieged Buckskin Bob during his program. Jam and Billy Egleston, John Murphy, Gary and Kenny Stettler, Jeanie and Vincenta Yates, and Dean and Dale Taylor were the new TV stars you saw that day.

Kay and Ray Logan—of 90th street!—now have a dog. The trouble is, they have a cat and a bird, too, and that can, and did, lead to a vicious circle with Kay caught in the middle! Seems the dog got after the cat, who had just attacked the bird, and in the ensuing fracas, Kay got herself chewed and scratched while trying to get the cat away from the dog—or was it the other way around? Anyhow, as far as we know, the dog didn't go after the bird, which is something on the credit side! At last reports, all the wounded were healing nicely! The dog, a full-grown pedigree boxer by the name of Count von Hessian, is a limpid-eyed 75 pounds of solid muscle!

Mrs. Resnik lost her sight at the age of two, and has been using braille since she was six. She spoke of the slow but increasing advance in braille libraries, both for reading and music. Nina Brandt, co-director of Recreation for the Blind, explained the film, which was about the camp for the blind, "Enchanted Hills," in Napa.

Standing rules for the newly formed PTA, read by Parliamentarian Robert Hennig, were adopted. Resignations from Mrs. J. Hadenfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hennig were read and accepted, according to Mrs. Muriel Keith, publicity chairman.

A ten minute period was set aside for general questioning by the membership.

A question pertaining to the methods of teaching reading in schools today was discussed. Mrs. Elizabeth Graves

TO SHOW CANCER FILM AT 2 LOCAL THEATERS

As part of a statewide intensive program to alert one million California women to the part they can play in bringing about early detection of cancer of the breast, the American Cancer Society film, "Breast Self-Examination," will be shown in the local area at 2 p.m. on November 30 at the Serra theatre and on November 29 at the Sea-Vue theater. An additional showing, for those women who can not attend an afternoon presentation, has been arranged for December 1 at 8 o'clock at the Jefferson High school. Showings will be open to every woman without charge.

In addition to the presentation of the film, a panel of physicians will be present at both times to answer questions from the audience.

Theater facilities are being donated by managers of the two theaters, and the services of projectionists have been volunteered by local members of the Moving Picture Machine Operators Union.

Dr. Harold D. Chope, San Mateo County Director of Health and Welfare, is urging that as many women as possible see the film, which is one of the best weapons yet devised in the fight against a form of cancer which responds most successfully to treatment.

"It is hoped that several hundred women will see the film while it is showing here," said Mrs. Julian Cohn, North County Chairman of the San Mateo County Branch. "The free showings of the breast self-examination film have been arranged as a public service by the American Cancer Society, and we are receiving enthusiastic cooperation from many of the women's groups, including the PTA and the various women's guilds of the local churches. The State Department of Public Health, the Cancer Commission of the California Medical Association, the San Mateo County Medical Society, as well as a number of other organizations and individuals, are all donating their support to this educational and life-saving project. Any woman who sets aside the time to attend the showing of this film will always be glad that she did."

DALY CITY FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY IN '56

Noting that 1956 will mark the fiftieth year of Daly City's existence, councilmen Monday night considered holding a special anniversary celebration here next year.

It was in the spring of 1906, following the San Francisco quake and fire, that migration to Daly City started and tent cities were erected on land that later was incorporated in 1911 as a sixth class city.

OBSERVE WEEK FOR NATION'S RETARDED

Distribution of window posters and counter cards marking National Retarded Children's Week, Nov. 13-Nov. 23, was begun this week throughout San Mateo county by members of the Parents Association for Retarded Children of San Mateo county.

Mrs. T. E. Wyckoff, 381 Arlington way, Menlo Park, chairman of the group's Education Committee, pointed out, "The Parents Association for Retarded Children is not conducting any direct solicitation for funds during National Retarded Children's Week. This is primarily an educational campaign."

"Few people recognize or understand this most heartbreaking of human handicaps — mental retardation," Mrs. Wyckoff said. No family is immune, and what affects one family affects the whole community. We hope that all of the communities in San Mateo county will rally to this great cause."

WHY DO I PULL THE BALL?

Pulling the ball is in most cases caused by the same type of swing that causes the slice. The only difference being that when the ball is pulled it is usually hit with the face closed. The type of swing I speak of is an outside in swing. Meaning that you start the club down from the outside of the intended line of flight and pull the club in as you hit.

The fault: Turning the hips or left side away from the ball too quickly on the downswing. This can cause you to hit from the top of the swing, or force you to swing from the outside in resulting in a bad pull.

The correction: Keep your right side behind you in the swing so that your hips don't turn too quickly. Practice swinging out at the ball with a little slower downswing. Keep your left arm firm at impact, and keep your head behind the point of impact. The position of your head is very important in making good contact with the ball. Never let it get ahead of the ball before impact. Staying behind the ball at impact definitely helps you hit out at the ball. This will in turn keep you from pulling the ball off line.

Remember: Keep your swing at an even tempo. The upswing going back should be the same speed as the downswing. Practicing this will bring you far better ball control. Keep your right shoulder from coming around to the ball too quickly. Your left shoulder and hip must lead the way. This will help you to swing out at the ball more than anything else that you might practice.

JEFFS TACKLE CRIPPLED MENLO TODAY, SSF ON THANKSGIVING

Need Win In Last Two For Second

The Indians from Jefferson High school will be at full strength today (Friday) at 2:45 p.m. when they take on a Menlo-Atherton squad that has been reduced to scrubs because of disciplinary action taken against 12 of their top players Tuesday.

The 12 players, most of them first string, were suspended from the Jefferson game for "Violation of training rules" in an incident that occurred over the weekend. Principal E. Nugent declined to elaborate on the incident, but said the guilty team members voluntarily turned themselves in at his office.

Coach Joe McGrath's club is out to hand Menlo a pasting so they can better enjoy the "dessert" next Thursday at 11 a.m. in the form of South San Francisco Warriors in the annual Thanksgiving day game to be held at the Warrior field.

Battle For Second

Should both the Warriors and Indians win today, the stage will be set Thursday for a battle to determine the second place team. McGrath and Jefferson are currently tied for second with 5-1 marks.

McGrath's club will be bolstered today with the return of halfback Tex Prentice, who was out two weeks after suffering a hand fracture in the Sequoia game, and end Ron Cryer.

Prentice will not start however, and McGrath will again give the nod to diminutive seabeck Jerry Howard. Jim Honeywell at QB, Ron O'Rourke at the other half and Lee Casentini at full will round out the starting backfield.

A couple of the regular performers who lost their starting slots last week have been returned to the number one club on strength of their play last week. They are center Don Wiesner and guard Rich Duncan.

The starting line will include Ted Amirkhan and Cloutier at ends, Herman Kihns and Roger Robinson at tackles, Duncan and Grubb at guards and Wiesner at Center.

Same For SSF This same club will open against the Warriors Thursday, barring injuries in today's contest.

While the Menlo Bears will be at only half strength, they are reputed to be a versatile club, with fast backs and a big line. They like to mixup their offense and McGrath's charges will be watching for a little bit of everything.

The Bears were in the race right up to last week, and now have a 4-2 record.

Only player not up to snuff for today's contest is hard-luck Harold Funkhouser, who is reportedly lost for the season because of an asthma attack. Funkhouser, a big utility back, received a knee injury in the season's opening contest with Serra and could not suit up again until the Sequoia tilt November 4, during which he played only a few minutes. He was not in school last week and missed the Burlingame contest altogether, so his total playing time amounted to about 20 minutes.

Mathematically, the Indians have a chance to tie for first, should undefeated Lincoln drop their traditional contest with lowly San Jose next week, but nobody is holding their breath for this eventuality.

Trace Twirls Second No Hitter In Week As BYA Dodgers Win

Two runs scored on errors were all that marred a perfect game for BYA Dodgers' Terry Tracy Saturday, as he tossed a 3-2, no hit win over Mill Valley.

It was Tracy's second no-hitter in one week, as he blanked St. Michael's November 5.

The Dodgers four hits were by Frank Dykes, Tom McHugh, Tracy and Dixie Howell.

The Broadmoor team has one game remaining in league play. No date has been set for the contest, which will be a re-match of one held earlier and protested by the Dodgers.

SE SEA SCOUTS TO HONOR OLD FRIEND

The Sea Scouts of San Francisco will pay special tribute to an old friend next Saturday at the St. Francis Yacht club.

They have invited Willis A. Mahoney, portmaster of their Aquatic Park base, to be guest of honor at their annual Bridge of Honor and ball, most important ceremonial and social event of the Sea Scout calendar.

The invitation, traditionally extended only to Admirals and other dignitaries of national reputation, was made in tribute to Mahoney's 24 years of service to the Sea Scouts.

CAP SNARES TITLE WITH 43-40 VICTORY OVER INDIAN 20s

Jefferson High school's 20s basketball club had the dubious honor of handing Capuchino the league title last Thursday, as they dropped a 43-40 decision to the Mustangs, while the Daly City 10s were making a split out of it, downing the ponies, 36-29.

Andy Ruelas and Don Anderson paced the losing 20s with 10 markers apiece, followed by Leroy Franzola's eight.

Don Miller rolled up 14 counters to top scoring for the local 10s. Wayne Lewis and Rich Holmgren netted eight apiece for the winners.

Lagomarsino Loses In Try For Damages

George Lagomarsino, local realtor, failed last week in his effort to secure $100,000 damages for injuries he suffered a year ago in a plane accident.

He had filed suit against Edward C. Watson, who operates an air service at San Carlos airport.

Lagomarsino charged that the engine in a plane he had rented from Watson was defective. As a result, claimed the realtor, he was forced into an emergency landing in Belmont, suffering severe injuries, including fractures of both legs.

A superior court jury, deliberating four hours, ruled in favor of the defendant.

HONEYWELL IS CINCH TO COP OFFENSE TITLE

Jim Honeywell, the big reason that Jefferson High school is sporting a 5-1 record and the PAL's top prospect for All Northern California grid honors, continued his domination of the league for total offense, as his total zoomed over 1000 yards following Friday's Burlingame tilt.

The brilliant senior quarterback appears almost a cinch to capture the PAL offensive title, as he now has compiled 1016 yards running and passing. His closest competition comes from Willow Glen's Schwartz, who has rolled up 755 yards on the ground and in the air.

Honeywell has passed for 537 yards and run for 479, to rank third in both individual departments.

Honeywell also holds sway over the scoring category, with 66 points made on 11 touchdowns. His number of points and number of touchdowns are both high to date.

The other end of the Honeywell pitching battery, Jeff End Tom Cloutier, leads the league in total yardage gained on pass receptions with 330. He ranks third in number of pass receptions, with 15. Cloutier has caught two touchdown passes.

HARRIES THIRD IN NCS GROUP 4 MEET

Jefferson High school's cross-country team finished third in the Group 4 North Coast Section meet last week in the Stanford course.

The Indians, with 77 points, finished behind Palo Alto, 18, and Fremont, 54.

fourth period when Burlingame, gambling on fourth down failed to earn the necessary yardage and the Daly City team took over on the Panther 33.

Honeywell's understudy Ed Leveroni dashed off 11 yards on the first play, and O'Rourke drove for seven more. Honeywell went for one yard and with the ball on the 14, Honeywell took off unimpeded around right end and across the goal line marker for his third TD of the day. Grubb's point try missed and the game ended minutes later.

Honeywell had his usually excellent day, running for 81 yards in 14 carries, and completing four of 10 passes for 156 yards, to get 237 yards on the day and extend his total offense to 1016, nearly 300 yards ahead of the runner-up, Willow Glen's Schwartz.

O'Rourke ran nine times for 25 yards, Ed Leveroni twice for 15, and Dan Miceli, Jerry Howard and Harold Funkhouser each carried once for two, six and three yards respectively.

Tom Cloutier continued his pace as the league's top yardage gaining pass receiver as he took in three airmails for a big 148 yards. Ted Amirkhan caught one for eight yards.
